John R. Evans and Roy Lippman, president and secretary of the Nodaway County Farm Bureau returned this morning from Columbia, where they attended a meeting of the farm bureau officials of the various counties of the state.

The meeting was called for the purpose of making plans for the inauguration of the new system of farm bureau federation adopted at the national meeting held in Chicago in November by which the members of each county organization are to pay $5 a year dues instead of $1 as has been the practice in the past. The state and national organizations will receive 20 per cent of the money collected an dthis will be used in promoting the interests of the farmers in legislative and economics affairs and in perfecting a real organization that will fairly represent the farmers in the state and national policies.

The Columbia meeting was attended by a majority of the county bureau officials and the Nodaway county men returned full of enthusiasm for the work and determined to put over the membership drive in a big way that is to be held in this county next week.

Drives will be conducted in all the counties in the state and will be under the special direction of an organization committee composed of Chester H. Gray, Nevada; R. W. Rucker, Keytesville; W. K. CLIFF HARRISON A CANDIDATE FOR SECRETARY OF STATE.

Sedalia,—C. M. Harrison, for four years editor and publisher of a daily newspaper in Sedalia, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for secretary of state. Harrison last week disposed of his newspaper interests here but still holds the North Missourian, published at Gallatin, Mo., his former home of which Ferd Harrison, his son, is editor.

Harrison is president of the Sedalia library board and has been active in central Missouri Republican politics. His former partner in the newspaper business here was John Swanger, secretary of state in the Folk administration.

Big Price for Mules.

D. A. Gelvin and M. Caywood have been buying and selling mules for the past few weeks and so far they have shipped to the city markets six car loads. Reports say that Caywood does the buying and Gelvan looks after the selling—some team work.

A few days ago they bought a nice pair of steel gray mules, 5 years old weighing 1300 pounds. All the buyers in the country and looked them over, Gelvin & Caywood bought them at $710 considered a good price, and it was but they did not get a to ship them, for Dewey Lewis, a wide awake young farmer near town took a fancy to them and bought them at $1000.

Mr. Gelvin says that even at this price mules are cheap. In 1870-74 it would take from to 3000 to 5000 bushels of corn to buy a fair pair of mules, while today 800 bushels of corn will turn the trick. In the early 70's a carload of hogs would not buy such a team but today a car load of hogs will buy 3 or 4 good mules.—Graham Tribune.

Graham has her fuel troubles as well as other towns and cities. At a called meeting of the business men last Thursday at the Citizens bank the following fuel administrators were elected: Ira Kidd, Frank Miller and J. M. Wilson.

WHEREAS, a correct enumeration of the population every ten years is required by the Constitution of the United States for the purpose of determining the representation of the several states in the House of Representatives; and

WHEREAS, it is of the utmost importance to the interests of all the people of the United States that this census should be a complete and accurate report of the population and resources of the Nation;

Now, therefore, I, WOODROW WILSON, President of the United States of America, do hereby declare and make known that, under the law aforesaid, it is the duty of every person to answer all questions on the census schedules applying to him and the family to which he belongs, and to the farm occupied by him or his family, and that any person refusing to do so is subject to penalty.

SCHOOL CHILDREN AID HEALTH WORK

SELL SEALS FOR BENEFIT TUBERCULOSIS ASSOCIATION

DIRECTORS NEEDED HERE

County Superintendent Cooper Solicits Aid of City Teachers in Carrying on Campaign.

Prof. Bert Cooper, county chairman of the Junior Red Cross organization solicits the aid of several of the city school teachers in taking charge of the Red Cross Christmas Seal sale in Maryville. The management of the sale is in the hands of the school superintendents of each township.

Supt. J. M. McDonald of the Maryville campaign, has been called away from the city and with the schools closed on account of fuel shortage, there is no head or leaders to take up the work. The children are anxious to help in the sale and are very willing to work but must have some one to direct Any one who will take up the work can notify Mr. Cooper. The Y. W. C. A. girls of the State Teachers college have agreed to sell $100 and put on their sale at the college today.

The Maryville quota is approximately $700.

These seals are for the benefit of the National Tuberculosis association and are use dto carry on the fight against this disease and to give relief and aid in prevention. The lesson taught in the campaign is much greater than the sale, because of the health lessons, and health practices inaugurated through the organization. All the teachers in the county are using these lessons in the school, following out a plan of their own.

The Ravenwood school started their sale yesterday with a fine record. For the past week the pupils in every department have used the health lessons and health rules as English and physiology wor kand learned many fundamental lessons in the care of general health. This work was followed up by a sale of the health bonds and seals to the children in the school.

Two boys, Eldon Steiger and Fred Jackson, each purchased a $5 bond and other students purchases of seals until the total of $60 worth was taken by the school students all over the building. They then started on a sale trip through the town and had sold $90 with only a part of the districts heard from. The room selling the most seals will be given a half holiday The campaign is in charge of Miss Reba Tomlin; superintendent and manager of that locality, assisted by Miss Allen Willis, Miss Nellie Cranor, Miss Cecil Bayless, Miss Eulalia Kysar and Miss Ruth Miller. The motto of the Ravenwood school is "Not one thing for self but every sacrifice for others" and they have shown this spirit in their work.

The directors of the work in the various districts are Barnard, C. F. Ross Graham, J. N. Geyer; Hopkins, George W. Somerville; Clearmont, Miss Mary Carson; Conception Junction, E. H. White; Quitman, Miss Hazel McCombs Elmo, Miss Leona Badger; Pickering, W. H. Burr; Burlington Junction, T. G. Glaze; Guilford, J. M. Broadbent; Ravenwood, Miss Reba Tomlin; Harmony W. A. Power; Skidmore, J. W. Pierce; Parnell, W. I. Lewis.

PERSISTENT RUMORS OF SECRET NEW ENTENTE

Said to Include England, France, Belgium and Italy in New Pact.

London, Dec. 13.—When sessions of the conference between Lloyd George and Clemenceau were resumed here today, persistent rumors were currant of another secret pact which is about to be put into effect. The new entente it was rumored, would include England, France Belgium and Italy. Clemenceau is said to favor another conference later in Paris to consider the Russian situation and the future of the government of the Russians.

The frist indication the Allies are seriously considering throwing the league of nations overboard, resorting to the old system of balance of power grew out of the final conference of Lloyd George and Clemenceau today. The information was secured from a reliable source. Davis, American ambassador to England, was asked to sound Washington on the attitude towards the new plan. Davis, it is understood, also asked to query Washington on the possibility of the senate ratifying the peace treaty if it is stripped of the league of nations covenant. The Central News this afternoon reported Lloyd George and Clemenceau yesterday sent proposals to President Wilson to make it acceptable to public opinion of America and also stated Davis had received Wilson's answer and would deliver it to the allied premiers this afternoon.

Washington, Dec. 13.—Neither side of the treaty controversy here appears to take seriously the news from London that the Allies are contemplating throwing the League of Nations overboard and resorting to the balance of power system.

SCHOOL GIRLS WON'T SIT BESIDE SKUNK HUNTERS

Nashville, Ind.,—Either the pupils of the public school here will have to give up skunk hunting or they will have to change clothes before they return to school after a profitable skunk chase.

It all started when girls attending the school complained to the teacher when compelled to sit close to the mighty skunk hunters.

The skunk hunters are standing firm, declaring they will not forfeit the profits of the chase.

The girls are also standing firm, declaring they will not attend school unless something is done with the hunters.

The school board has taken the matter under advisement and a decision is expected within the next day or so.

MOVE ENTIRE TOWN TO PERMIT WORKING ORE MINES

Minneapolis, Minn.,—Hibbing, Minn. is going to move again. The entire town, "stock and barrel," will shortly change its place on the map.

Valuable iron ore deposits have been discovered under Hibbing, so Hibbing will be moved in order that the ore may be mined.

It will be the second time Hibbing has moved. Several years ago ore was located under the town and it was moved a half mile.

But Hibbing, at that, will not have the record for moving. Eveleth, town of 10,000 nearby, has been moved 2 times within the past 20 years to permit the working of ore mines found under the place.

Farm Light and Power at One Price

The Phelps Farm Power and Light Plant owes its supremacy to the fact that it is able to deliver farm light at no additional expense—charging batteries at the same time that it is furnishing power—and to the fact that it is the strongest, most powerful and easiest to operate of any engine power in the world.

The Phelps engine is simple auto construction and can be handled by anyone who has the least idea of mechanics. It is rated at 3½ h. p., absolutely guaranteed, making it practical for the operation of any farm machine.

Storage battery—charged when using power—will light all the farm buildings, give power for fans, sewing machine, toasters or irons. In fact, you can have all the advantages of electric light on the farm at no extra expense beyond what your machinery power costs.

During the coal shortage the machinery in the Phelps factory has been run with their own small plants, five heavy duty engines being driven with one Phelps unit.

You will see much more about it than we can tell you if you if you will come and watch it work. Every statement made above thoroughly demonstrated.

Supper was served at midnight with Miss Frankie Master as toast mistress the party included Mr. and Mrs. Pete Meyers, and sons, Daniel and Leo, Mr and Mrs. Mike Baker and sons, Gayle, Herbert, Charles and Emmett, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Meyers and children, Mildred, Margaret, Francis, Charlene, Gertrude and Clarence, Miss Frankie Masters, the host, and hostess and their children, Helen and Genie.

USE PLAIN ENGLISH.

Clarksburg, W. Va.—Preach your sermon in plainer Anglo-Saxon and outside of the church meet the man on the street in his own terms. This was the advice given to Methodist Episcopal clergymen here by Rev. Dr. Appleton Bash of Pittsburgh.

"Avoid church phrases when addressing persons outside the church," he said. "Talk in terms that will be understood. Don't expect to interest the man outside by using such phrases as 'being born again' or 'washed in the blood of Jesus.'"

AMERICANS SHIP LARGE SUPPLIES TO POLAND

Jewish Relief Commission Disburses Funds. Send 20,000 Outfits of Clothing.

New York, Dec. 13.—Carrying on reconstruction work hand in hand with their relief program, large quantities of clothing in bolt and other tailoring material has been shipped to Poland from England, in order that restitute Jews there may begin working to support themselves, the American Jewish Relief Committee announced today.

The supplies were purchased by Captain Robert Gray, English commissioner of the Joint Distribution Committee which disburses Jewish relief funds. Part of this money in this instance was contributed by English Jewry, according to Captain Gray.

In addition to their appeals for food and clothing, the stricken Jews of Eastern Europe have continually asked that raw materials be sent them, so that they might become self supporting.

"We want to work, but we have nothing to work with and no money with which to buy materials," has been their constant cry.

In addition Captain Gray reported that 20,000 outfits of mens and women's overcoats, shoes and stockings were being shipped to Poland, to help compat the severe winter.

STATE CORN AND GRAIN SHOW—JANUARY 20-23

The Seventeenth Annual State Corn and Grain Show will be held Farmer's week at the university of Missouri, College of Agriculture, January 20-23. It is strictly educational and all interested in good seed will profit by attending. Nine trophies, six gold watches and five gold medals will be awarded as sweepstakes and championship premiums. These in addition to the 232 other prizes, make a show in which there is reward for all who will make a serious effort. The professional class which was added last year removes from competition in the amateur classes all men who have won a championship or sweepstakes ribbon in one of the last five shows.

The show includes not only corn but also wheat, oats, soy beans, cowpeas, clover and grass seeds. It is a general seed show and there are fine premiums for quality in all the important field seeds grown in Missouri. Exhibits must be received in Columbia by W. C. Etheridge, Secretary, on or before January 11, 1920. Copies of the premium list with the rules governing exhibitors in all classes may be had by addressing W. C. Etheridge on or before January 11, 1920.

FARMERS' WEEK IS PARTICULARLY IMPORTANT

"The war is ended, but the problems of peace are even more difficult of solution," say Dean F .B. Mumford of the University of Missouri College of Agriculture. "Only trained men who possess the advantages of the most modern methods can succeed in the new era. Land has almost doubled in value. Prices of farm products may go down. What then?" he asks.

Nowhere can a farmer receive so much assistance in so short a time to meet his particular requirements as at the short course for farmers at Columbia January 19 to 23. Reliable priniciples on which the farmer can base his policy in meeting changed conditions will be set forth. Inquiry brings from experts the accumulated experience of the whole country concerning the very problems for which a farmer needs help to solve. Fertiliers, legumes, grains, grasses, soils, labor, machinery, seed, animal, and crop diseases, poultry, livestock, silos trucking, pruning, spraying, problems of the home, including food. dress, health and home conveniences—all these are suggestions of what the program will contain. The program is divided into eight short courses, meeting simultaneously between the hours of 8:30 a. m. to 3:00 p. m. Fifteen state associations will have meetings in the afternoons after 3 o'clock. The evening programs will be supplied by the State Boad of Agriculture. The seventeenth annual state corn show will be held. A banquet will be held Friday night. All these activities go to make up Farmers' Week.

The College of Agriculture with all of its faculty, its laboratories, equipment, libraries and classrooms will be open for the exclusive use of farmers and their families. The many students will help entertain the visitors. The college truly belongs to the farmers and he may enjoy its full possession January 19-23.

MANY DISABLED VETS WOULD FOLLOW MUSICAL CAREERS

Washington,—The Federal board for vocational training is up against it.

Many disabled veterans undergoing vocational training have expressed a desire for a musical career and wherever possible they have had their wishes granted.

But some of those who have been thus trained have made requests which would speedily bring the Government to the brink of financial ruin if complied with.

One veteran requested that he be furnished with a harp costing $1,200; another wanted a grand piano costing $1,400 and a future Mozart wanted a violin costing $250.

The board is permitted by Congress to furnish the necessary instruments but they are finding it impossible to buy thousand dollar harps and two hundred and fifty dollar violins.

Mushrooms, a worldwide product, are as plentiful in Siberia as in tropical climes.
